

Office of Chancellor

2 February 2024

The Vice-Chancellor gives notice that The Lord Sainsbury of Turville has advised her of his intention to step down later this year from his office as Chancellor of the University. The Council will publish a timetable for the election of a successor once the Chancellor has formally submitted his resignation to the University, which is expected to be in the Easter Term. The process for nominating candidates and electing the Chancellor is set out in the University's Statutes and Ordinances (p. 109, as revised by Grace 1 submitted to the Senate on 17 January 2024; a complete version of the new Ordinance is available).
