IN THE LANGUAGE CENTRE YOU CAN:

- Take a CULP (Cambridge University Language Programme) course in the Michaelmas, Lent and Long Vacation terms in French, German, Italian and Spanish at Basic or Intermediate levels. A fee is charged for the courses which are open to all students and staff of the university.
- Join the Pressland Fund language courses in Russian at either Basic or Intermediate level and Japanese at Basic level in the Michaelmas and Lent terms. Priority is given to students from the Schools of Physical and Biological Sciences, Technology and Clinical Medicine.
- Study any of 150+ languages from basic to advanced level on a self-access basis in the John Trim Centre, with advice and support available. New acquisitions and resources are listed monthly on the Resource Library web pages.
- Discuss your learning needs and plan your individual programme with a member of the advising team.
- Enter into a conversation exchange with a speaker of the language you are learning.
- Access language learning programmes, digital television recordings, other online resources, links to external language resources, newspapers and courses abroad.
- View live satellite television in 12 languages. Selected recordings are made every night and news bulletins are digitised for online use.
- Explore foreign films and documentaries in over 60 languages.
- Listen to authentic audio recordings, ranging from contemporary lecture series to historical speeches, etc.
- Consult reference books and directories on living and working abroad and investigate feedback from students who have attended language courses in other countries.
- Consult resources on language learning and teaching methodology.
