REGULATIONS FOR EXAMINATIONSHuman, Social, and Political Sciences Tripos(Statutes and Ordinances, p. 345)With effect from 1 October 2017

The General Board, on the recommendation of the Faculty Board of Human, Social, and Political Science, has approved changes to the Tripos regulations so as to remove the twin tracks in (i) Archaeology and Social Anthropology and (ii) Biological and Social Anthropology, and also to remove the former single tracks in Archaeology and Biological Anthropology. The regulations have also been updated to reflect changed ownership of papers now offered by the new Archaeology Tripos, which remain available to HSPS students under borrowing arrangements.

By amending Regulation 1 so as to read:

1. The Human, Social, and Political Sciences Tripos shall consist of three parts: Part I, Part IIA, and Part IIB. In Part IIA and Part IIB there shall be an examination in each of the following three subjects: Politics and International Relations, Social Anthropology, and Sociology, and there shall be a joint examination in each of the following three pairs of subjects: Politics and Sociology, Sociology and Social Anthropology, Social Anthropology and Politics. For Part I there shall be a single class-list; for Part IIA and Part IIB there shall be a separate class-list for each of the three subjects of the examination and for each joint examination.

By amending Regulation 6 so as to read:

6. Separate meetings shall be held of all the Examiners for Part I and of the three bodies of Examiners for Part IIA and Part IIB, at which the respective class-lists shall be drawn up. The three bodies of Examiners for Part IIA and Part IIB shall also draw up class-lists for the following subjects: Politics and Sociology (the Examiners for Politics and International Relations), Sociology and Social Anthropology (the Examiners for Sociology), and Social Anthropology and Politics (the Examiners for Social Anthropology). In each class-list the names of the candidates who deserve honours shall be placed in three classes, of which the second shall be divided into two divisions. The names in the first and third classes, and in each division of the second class, shall be arranged in alphabetical order. For special excellence a mark of distinction may be awarded.

Regulation 11.

By deleting all the papers under Section A and replacing them with the following:

- POL1. The modern state and its alternatives
(also serves as an optional paper for Paper 5 of Part IIA of the Economics Tripos)
- POL2. International conflict, order, and justice
(also serves as an optional paper for Paper 5 of Part IIA of the Economics Tripos)
- SOC1. Modern societies I: introduction to sociology

- Part IIB in 2020

Mathematical Tripos, Part III

(Statutes and Ordinances, p. 369)

With effect from 1 October 2016

The General Board, on the recommendation of the Faculty Board of Mathematics, has approved the amendment of Regulation 22 to better reflect the classification of Part III by amending the wording to read:

The names of the candidates who have obtained honours in the examination for Part III shall be placed in two classes, corresponding to the first class and the upper division of the second class of Parts IA, IB, and II of the Mathematical Tripos. Distinctive marks shall be attached to the names of those candidates who in the opinion of the Examiners deserve special credit. Within the first class, the mark (d) shall be used to denote a distinguished performance, while the mark (m), denoting a meritorious performance, shall be attached to the names of the other candidates placed within the first class. All candidates shall be listed alphabetically.

NOTICES BY FACULTY BOARDS, ETC.

Annual meetings of the Faculties

Computer Science and Technology

The Chair of the Faculty Board of Computer Science and Technology gives notice that the Teaching Conference and Annual Meeting of the Faculty will be held at 2.15 p.m. on Tuesday, 15 November 2016, in Lecture Theatre 1 of the William Gates Building, JJ Thomson Avenue. All members of the Faculty are invited to attend.

Earth Sciences and Geography

The Chair of the Faculty Board of Earth Sciences and Geography gives notice that the Annual Meeting of the Faculty will be held at 2.15 p.m. on Tuesday, 22 November 2016, in the Seminar Room, Department of Geography, Downing Place. The business will be the election, in accordance with Regulation 1 of the General Regulations for the Constitution of the Faculty Boards (Statutes and Ordinances, p. 585), of two members of the Board in class (c) to serve for four years from 1 January 2017.

Nominations for the election and notice of any other business should reach the Secretary of the Faculty Board (email: secretary@esg.cam.ac.uk) not later than 17 November 2016.

Human, Social, and Political Science

The Chair of the Faculty Board of Human, Social, and Political Science gives notice that the Annual Meeting of the Faculty will be held at 1 p.m. on Thursday, 17 November 2016, in the Seminar Room of the McDonald Institute for Archaeological Research, Downing Street. The main business will be the election of five members of the Faculty Board in class (c), in accordance with the General Regulations for the Constitution of the Faculty Boards (Statutes and Ordinances, p. 585). Nominations, signed by the proposer and seconder, for which the consent of the candidate must be obtained, should reach the Secretary of the Faculty Board (Ms Suzy Adcock, email: sfa26@cam.ac.uk) not later than lunchtime on Friday, 11 November 2016. Notice of any other business should reach the Secretary by the same date.

Mathematics

The Chair of the Faculty Board of Mathematics gives notice that the Annual Meeting of the Faculty will be held at 2.15 p.m. on Thursday, 17 November 2016, in Meeting Room 5, Pavilion A, of the Centre for Mathematical Sciences. Business will include the election, in accordance with Regulation 1 of the General Regulations for the Constitution of the Faculty Boards (Statutes and Ordinances, p. 585), of:

- two members of the Faculty Board in class (a)(ii) to serve from 1 January 2017 for four years;
- two members of the Faculty Board in class (c) to serve from 1 January 2017 for four years.

Nominations for these elections should reach the Secretary of the Faculty Board of Mathematics, Room B1.30, Centre for Mathematical Sciences, Wilberforce Road, not later than 12 noon on Thursday, 10 November 2016.

Nominations should be in writing, should bear the signatures of the proposer and seconder, and should contain a signed statement by the nominee that he/she would consent to serve if elected. Any further items for the agenda should reach the Secretary by the same date.

Veterinary Medicine

The Chair of the Faculty Board of Veterinary Medicine gives notice that the Annual Meeting of the Faculty will be held at 12.30 p.m. on Wednesday, 9 November 2016 in Lecture Theatre 2 of the Department of Veterinary Medicine, Madingley Road.

Asian and Middle Eastern Studies Tripos, Part II

(Statutes and Ordinances, p. 278)

With immediate effect

The Faculty Board of Asian and Middle Eastern Studies gives notice that Paper MES.39 shall be Paper 21 of Parts IIA and IIB of the History of Art Tripos.

SUPPLEMENTARY REGULATIONS

PART II

Additional papers available for examination under Regulation 8

By amending the current descriptor for the paper to:

MES.39. Special subject in the pre-modern Middle East (Paper 21 of Parts IIA and IIB of the History of Art Tripos)

The Faculty Board of Asian and Middle Eastern Studies is satisfied that no candidate's preparation for the examination will be affected.

FORM AND CONDUCT OF EXAMINATIONS

Notices by Faculty Boards, or other bodies concerned, of changes to the form and conduct of certain examinations to be held in 2017, by comparison with those examinations in 2016, are published below. Complete details of the form and conduct of all examinations are available from the Faculties or Departments concerned.

Asian and Middle Eastern Studies Tripos, Part II, 2016–17

Further to its Notice of 21 September 2016 (Reporter, 6435, 2016–17, p. 5) the Faculty Board of Asian and Middle Eastern Studies gives notice of the following amendment to the form and conduct of the examination for Paper MES.39.

MES.39. Special subject in the pre-modern Middle East (Paper 21 of Parts IIA and IIB of the History of Art Tripos)

This paper will now consist of fifteen questions instead of eight, in two sections. Section A will contain twelve essay questions instead of five; Section B will still contain three questions based on images for analysis and discussion. Candidates for the Asian and Middle Eastern Studies Tripos will still be required to answer three questions, at least one from each section. All questions will carry equal marks.

The Faculty Board of Asian and Middle Eastern Studies is satisfied that no candidate's preparation for the examination will be affected.

Geographical Tripos, Parts IA and IB, 2017

The Faculty Board of Earth Sciences and Geography gives notice that, with effect from the examination to be held in 2017, there will be the following changes to the form and conduct of the examination.

PART IA

The constituent components of the examination at Part IA will be combined as follows:

- Paper 1: one third of the overall mark
- Paper 2: one third of the overall mark
- Practical exercises (five combined): one third of the overall mark

Paper 1 (Human geography): students will be required to answer three questions from a total of not fewer than twelve questions.

Paper 2 (Physical geography) will be divided into three compulsory sections:

- Section 1: Students are required to write three definitions from a total of not fewer than six options.
- Section 2: Students are required to answer one question from a total of not fewer than six questions, which will directly address individual themes covered in the course material.
- Section 3: Students are required to answer one question from a total of not fewer than four questions, which will require students to demonstrate their understanding of the linkages between different parts of the course.

PART IB

The examination for Paper 1 of Part IB will draw on material covered in both part (i) of the course (Geographical concepts) and part (iii) of the course (Geographical themes). Students will be required to answer any two questions from a choice of not fewer than six.

Natural Sciences Tripos, 2016–17

The Committee of Management for the Natural Sciences Tripos give notice that, with effect from the examinations to be held in 2017, the form and conduct of certain of the examinations for the Natural Sciences Tripos will be changed as follows:

PART IB

Cell and developmental biology

The written practical paper shall contain nine questions of equal weight, of which students should answer eight. The paper will no longer be subdivided into sections. The rubric will read: ‘Answer any eight questions from the paper.’

Paper 1 and Paper 2 of the examination remain unchanged.

Plant and microbial sciences

- (a) One 1½ hour long written paper taken in the Easter Term (15% of the total mark).
- (b) Practical write-ups (10% of total mark). These are short write-ups of the practicals, which may be in the form of structured questions, or an informal ‘lab book’ write-up. Ten of the laboratory practical classes from Michaelmas (including the presentation), Lent, and Easter Terms are submissible. Write-ups for these practicals must be submitted during the term. Marks for the six best write-ups will be taken forward as write-up marks.

PART II

Biochemistry

Paper 1

The paper will be of three hours’ duration, and will contain questions on module A, ‘Structural and chemical biology’. It will be divided into two sections. Section I will contain two questions of a broad, integrative nature, and/or requiring discussion of methods and approaches to addressing biochemical problems. Section II will contain five more focussed questions. Candidates will be required to answer one question from Section I, and two questions from Section II. Each question will carry equal marks.

Paper 2

The paper will be of three hours’ duration, and will contain questions on module B, ‘From genome to proteome’. It will be divided into two sections. Section I will contain two questions of a broad, integrative nature, and/or requiring discussion of methods and approaches to addressing biochemical problems. Section II will contain five more focussed questions. Candidates will be required to answer one question from Section I, and two questions from Section II. Each question will carry equal marks.

Paper 3

The paper will be of three hours’ duration, and will contain questions on module D, ‘Signalling and cancer’. It will be divided into two sections. Section I will contain two questions of a broad, integrative nature, and/or requiring discussion of methods and approaches to addressing biochemical problems. Section II will contain five more focussed questions. Candidates will be required to answer one question from Section I, and two questions from Section II. Each question will carry equal marks.

Paper 4

The paper will be of three hours’ duration. It will be divided into four sections. Section I will contain two questions on module C of a broad, integrative nature, and/or requiring discussion of methods and approaches to addressing biochemical problems. Sections II–IV will contain more focussed questions. Section II will contain three questions on the first half (‘The dynamic cell’) of module C. Section III will contain three questions on the ‘Bioenergy’ component of module C. Section IV will contain three questions on the ‘Molecular microbiology of infectious disease’ component of module C. Candidates will be required to answer one question from Section I, one question from Section II, and one question from either Section III or Section IV. Each question will carry equal marks.

All other parts of the examination, including Paper 5, remain unchanged.

History and philosophy of science

The written papers in both option (a) and (b) shall include a total of twelve questions per paper. The number of questions in section B will increase from eight to nine. The number of questions a candidate is required to answer remains the same.

Physiology, development, and neuroscience

Each candidate shall offer:

- (a) four written papers of three hours each. Each paper will carry 16% of the total marks and will examine the material from one taught module. Candidates will be required to answer three questions, on each paper, from a selection of six. All questions will require an essay-type answer and will be worth equal marks. Some questions may take the format of ‘either...or...’;
- (b) a report of a research project. The report will consist of not more than 8,500 words including a summary of not more than 500 words but excluding tables, figure legends, footnotes, bibliography, acknowledgements, and appendices. It is to be submitted to the Examiners for assessment not later than the third day of Full Easter Term. During the Easter Term candidates will be examined viva voce on their project. The report and viva voce examination will together carry 36% of the total marks for the examination.

Plant sciences

Each candidate shall offer:

- (a) four written papers of three hours each, answering three questions from six. Each paper will carry 16% of the total marks and will examine the material from one taught module.
- (b) a report of a research project. The report will consist of not more than 6,000 words. The report will carry 27% of the total marks for the examination.
- (c) a critical review essay. The essay will consist of not more than 2,500 words and carry 9% of the total marks for the examination.

Candidates may be asked to attend a viva voce examination.

Psychology, neuroscience, and behaviour

Each candidate shall offer:

- (a) four written papers of three hours each. Each paper will carry 16% of the total marks and will examine the material from one taught module.
- (b) a report of a research project. The report will consist of not more than 8,000 words, plus a summary of not more than 500 words but excluding tables, figure legends, footnotes, bibliography, acknowledgements, and appendices. It is to be submitted to the Examiners for assessment not later than the fifth day of Full Easter Term. During the Easter Term candidates will be examined viva voce on their project. The report and viva voce examination will together carry 36% of the total marks for the examination.

Chemistry

Paper 1A will contain one question relating to each of the four core courses: A1, A2, A3, and A4. Candidates are required to answer all four questions, which carry equal weight.

Paper 1B will contain one question relating to the core course A1, one to the core course A2, and two to the course A6. Candidates are required to answer all four questions, which carry equal weight.

All other papers remain the same.

Part II Physical sciences – Half Subject Chemistry

The attention of candidates is drawn to the above changes in the format of Paper 1A for NST Part II Chemistry. Candidates for Half-Subject Chemistry are required to answer two questions. The duration of the paper is 90 minutes.

PART III

Biochemistry

Paper 2 will be divided into two sections drawing on the overall scope of the Journal Clubs embedded in the group supervisions in the Michaelmas and Lent Terms and the seminar series on 'Scientific method and experimental design'. Section I will require the critical evaluation of a short biochemical research article in response to a series of compulsory questions embedded in the text. Section II will contain three essay questions of an integrative nature. Candidates shall answer one question from this section. Each section carries equal marks. The duration of Paper 2 remains unchanged.

All other papers remain unchanged.
