The Council has agreed that this topic will be included among the matters for consideration at the Discussion on 5 December 2017. The Vice-Chancellor has agreed that this Discussion will be open to all students in the University and to all employees of the University and Colleges, who will be entitled to attend and to speak on this topic, time permitting, in addition to those already so entitled.

Consultation on new academic career pathway model

One of the objectives of the University's People Strategy<sup>1</sup> is to provide structured routes to career progression for both academic and professional careers. As part of that work, proposals for a new academic career pathway model are being developed. Comments are invited on that model, aligned to academic titles, to replace the current Senior Academic Promotions (SAP) scheme and align induction and probation arrangements to the new scheme. Further information on the proposals is available at <https://www.hr.admin.cam.ac.uk/consultation-new-academic-career-pathway-model>. Comments should be sent by email to ACPconsultation@admin.cam.ac.uk by 8 December 2017.

REGULATIONS FOR EXAMINATIONS*Asian and Middle Eastern Studies Tripos, Part II, 2017–18(Statutes and Ordinances, p. 291)With immediate effect

The General Board, on the recommendation of the Faculty Board of Asian and Middle Eastern Studies, has approved an amendment to the Supplementary Regulations for Part II of the Asian and Middle Eastern Studies Tripos so as to change the title and description of Paper J.16 so as to read:

SUPPLEMENTARY REGULATIONS

PART II

J.16. Topics in pre-modern Japanese history

This advanced seminar-based course will explore approaches to and topics in recent scholarship of pre-modern Japanese history. The focus may vary from year to year but the coverage will sample Japanese and some English-language scholarship from early history to the late Tokugawa period. The focus will be on the critical reading of a variety of narratives, which will be discussed during our weekly meetings. Students will also develop their analytical skills, write brief reports, and work on their presentation skills.

The Faculty Board of Asian and Middle Eastern Studies has confirmed that no candidate's preparation for the examination in 2018 will be affected by this change.

English Tripos, Part II, 2017–18(Statutes and Ordinances, p. 335)With immediate effect

The General Board, on the recommendation of the Faculty Board of English, has approved an amendment to the Supplementary Regulations for Part II of the English Tripos so as to change the examination conduct of Paper 9, as follows:

PART II

Paper 9. Lyric

This paper will not be divided into sections. The paper will consist of essay questions offering candidates the opportunity to explore many aspects of the nature and history of lyric in many different ways. Candidates must show substantial knowledge of lyric written during at least two of the following three date ranges: (i) before 1700; (ii) 1700–1900; (iii) after 1900.

The Faculty Board of English has confirmed that no candidate's preparation for the examination in 2018 will be affected by this change.

Modern and Medieval Languages Tripos(Statutes and Ordinances, p. 396)With immediate effect

The General Board, on the recommendation of the Faculty Board of Modern and Medieval Languages, has approved amendments to Schedule B of the Modern and Medieval Languages Tripos so as to amend the titles of certain papers, as follows:

*SCHEDULE BGerman

By amending the title of Paper Ge.14 to 'Ge.14. German literature, thought, and history in the medieval and early modern periods'.

The Faculty Board of Modern and Medieval Languages has confirmed that no candidate's preparation for the examination in 2018 will be affected by this change.

Natural Sciences Tripos, Parts IA and III

PART IA

(Statutes and Ordinances, p. 408)

With immediate effect

The General Board, on the recommendation of the Committee of Management for the Natural Sciences Tripos, has approved amendments to Regulation 17(b) of the Natural Sciences Tripos so as to add the date that records of practical work should be submitted to the Examiners of Mathematical Biology and to clarify the application of the final sentence.

Regulation 17(b).

By adding to the second sentence, before the stipulation for Mathematics, the words ‘in Mathematical Biology, on a date or dates announced by the Examiners not later than the division of Michaelmas Term;’.

By amending the wording of the final sentence so as to read ‘Where appropriate, the records shall bear the signature of the teachers under whose direction the work was performed.’

PART III

(Statutes and Ordinances, p. 416)

With effect from 1 October 2018

The General Board, on the recommendation of the Faculty Board of Earth Sciences and Geography and of the Board of History and Philosophy of Science, has approved amendments to Regulation 36 of the Natural Sciences Tripos so as to allow greater flexibility in the topics for Earth Sciences and amend the word count for the dissertation for History and Philosophy of Science.

Regulation 36.

Earth Sciences

By amending sub-paragraph (b) so as to read:

- (b) a written paper of three hours’ duration, consisting of two sections, A and B. Topics may relate to a field trip or to general aspects of Earth Sciences.

History and Philosophy of Science

By amending sub-paragraph (d) so as to read:

- (d) a dissertation, of not more than 12,000 words including footnotes but excluding appendices and bibliography.

The Committee of Management for the Natural Sciences Tripos has confirmed that no candidate’s preparation for the examination will be affected by these changes.

Examination in Scientific Computing for the M.Phil. Degree

(Statutes and Ordinances, p. 542)

With effect from 1 October 2018

The General Board, on the recommendation of the Degree Committee for the Faculty of Physics and Chemistry, has approved an amendment to the regulations for the examination in Scientific Computing for the degree of Master of Philosophy to change the date by which the announcement of elective modules must be published.

Regulation 1.

By amending the second part of the first sentence of Regulation 1 so as to read:

‘provided that the Degree Committee shall have power to give notice of additional elective modules not later than the division of Michaelmas Term.’

FORM AND CONDUCT OF EXAMINATIONS

Notices by Faculty Boards, or other bodies concerned, of changes to the form and conduct of certain examinations to be held in 2017–18, by comparison with those examinations in 2016–17, are published below. Complete details of the form and conduct of all examinations are available from the Faculties or Departments concerned.

Asian and Middle Eastern Studies Tripos, Parts IA, IB, and II, 2018: Correction

The notice published on 8 November 2017 (Reporter, 6483, 2017–18, p. 99) contained an error. Papers J15 and J19 were incorrectly listed under Part IB and should instead be listed as East Asian Studies papers in Part II. The amended form and conduct list for the East Asian Studies papers in Part II should therefore read as set out below. The conduct information itself is unchanged.

PART II

East Asian Studies

J.12 Modern Japanese texts 3

This paper consists of two sections which have equal value. Section A consists of unseen passages for translation from Japanese into English. Section B consists of longer unseen passages in Japanese with comprehension questions answered in English. Students must answer both sections. Copies of the dictionaries Shinjigen and Kojien will be available during the examination.

J.15 Modern Japanese cultural history

The coursework that constitutes this paper’s assessment will consist of one research essay, of between 6,000 and 7,500 words, including footnotes and excluding bibliography. Each student will develop the topic of the essay in consultation with the instructor. Two hard copies and one electronic copy (PDF) of the research essay shall be submitted to the Programmes Administrator in the Faculty Office so as to arrive not later than the division of Full Easter Term.

J.19 Contemporary Japanese society

The coursework that constitutes this paper’s assessment consists of one research essay, of between 6,000 and 7,500 words, including footnotes and excluding bibliography. Each student will develop the topic of the essay in consultation with the instructor. Two copies of the research essay shall be submitted to the Programmes Administrator in the Faculty Office so as to arrive not later than the division of Full Easter Term.
